
Page 1, line 20-21 should read: "The maritime structures were designed by Ing. Guglielmo Migliorino and the main breakwater (about 1.2 km long) was designed using Accropode™ concrete units."

(Note: Although physical model tests were performed using Accropode™ model units, the authors are unaware what unit was used in the final construction).
